

1. What industries are more typical of those with a more diverse population?
2. The data I would be using would be the different groups within a city and the respective industries within each city. Hopefully, a trend can be seen of what industries are more common with a more diverse population.